

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Lucille Epstein, President, 561-369-1748

Dear Friends,

It seems the longer I live, the faster the days go by. Here it is March, and it seems only yesterday that Audrey Ginsberg did that wonderful program in January. We're also marveling at the depth of Rabbi's knowledge and his signature delivery when he spoke at the Sisterhood meeting on February 18. The topic, "Kashrut: origins and evolution or can you mix milk and meat?"—Well, do you really know?

Sorry if you missed this terrific meeting, but you get another opportunity to hear our Rabbi on March 28, 2010 (Sunday at 7:00 pm at Temple Beth Torah, Wellington). He and Rabbi Pinsky will be discussing the book "Why Faith Matters," by Rabbi David Wolper. Please join us for an informative discussion as we continue the tradition of 2 Rabbis—1 Book.

Enjoy a busy April 15 and get your mind off taxes. At noon, Sisterhood's presenter will be Rabbi Tract. She is a fascinating speaker (and we're not at all biased).

At 7:00 pm at Temple, also on April 15, our own Cantor Kaplan and Cantor Barry from Temple Beth Torah, Wellington, will present the first ever program of 2 Cantors—1 Country. Cost is $5.00 for members of either Temple and $7.00 for non-members.

It's time, once again, for the very special Women's Seder. March 7 (Sunday) is the date and 11:30 am is the time. We will be celebrating using a Haggadah written by Sisterhood members and led by Emily Aronoff. Come, bring your mothers, daughters, granddaughters, nieces, friends—all women are welcome. Contact Diane Carver or Suzanne Feldman for more information. Flyers are in the lobby kiosk.

Reminders:

Bea Lewis (funny, funny) will be with us on March 18.

Cantor Aaron Kaplan will be with us for the May 20 meeting.

We invite everyone to attend. We're so fortunate to have these marvelous, talented people present to us.

Shalom

Lucille Epstein
