

You and Our Future

There are temples that remain stagnant for many years. They are the ones that close up or team up with other temples to maintain membership. That is not the case here at Temple Shaarei Shalom.

We are constantly looking for ways to improve our religious and educational programs as well as our physical appearance. This is why we are rated one of the top reform temples in South Florida. Needless to say these improvements cost money. Let us take a lesson from our parents and grandparents. Regardless of their financial status, they made sure they had money to contribute toward their synagogue. They recognized the importance of the financial obligations of running a good temple.

You have been part of a temple that was started by 18 people, and is now a successful and thriving religious institution. You have been an important part of the growth. You now have an opportunity to help continue our success into the future.

May you be remembered as a person whose generosity helped Temple Shaarei Shalom remain an outstanding religious facility in the future. Your children and your children's children, as well as countless others, will reap the benefits of your legacy.

A gift can change the lives of future congregants and students and be one of life's most satisfying experiences. Learn more about leaving a legacy for Temple Shaarei Shalom by contacting Caryn Feldman at the Temple.
