RABBI'S FORUM

Rabbi Anthony Fratello

The year that Rabbi Tract and I were living and studying in Israel, we ended up having a two week break around Passover. Wanting to take advantage of our time and experience, we booked a tour that took place (in part over the Passover Holiday). Believe me, we were VERY torn about this. It was hard to give up on Celebrating IN Jerusalem, but we consoled ourselves on the fact that it was an Israeli tour. Rabbi Tract and I (and the other Rabbinical Students that we were traveling with) were the ONLY Americans on the trip. Moreover, they would be organizing and hosting a Seder on the First Night. So... it was with great fanfare and hope that we set off.

Our experience was somewhat underwhelming, I am sad to say. The Seder took up all of 8 minutes. Immediately after all the Matzah was served, they brought out a regular meal replete with bread, rice, and any number of other things that were not Pesadikh. We kept to our own practice and said, "Well... next time we will know."

It seemed so very odd to us that our fellow travelers would go to all the work of arranging a Seder on their trip, but then doing little to nothing to actually keep the holiday. Point of fact, the Matzah ran out after a day or two. But, this experience taught us a very important lesson:

Passover, like many of the Jewish Holidays, is deeply ingrained in our hearts and souls. Whoever we are, wherever we are, we naturally gravitate to it. (Similarly, many Israelis do not go to synagogues on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, but the country itself closes down. Many Israelis do not attend synagogues on Shabbat, but every Friday they will greet you with, "Shabbat Shalom!") These customs, these rhythms, they are simply a part of who we are. How wonderful that is! How amazing that is! After all of these years; even after all of the change that has been wrought in our community, we feel the pull of the old ways.

I am so excited that this year we are again having our Second Night Seder at TSS. COVID 2020 we Zoomed from Temple; you all could sit and watch as my family and I ate. COVID 2021 and 2022, we Zoomed from our Home; sorry it was not cleaner!

This year we will be back in our familiar place with our familiar people, celebrating once again.

I know many of you will join us. I know most of you will have a Seder on April 5, some will have another the next night. I know some of you may only have a small piece of Matzah and then give the Holiday little more thought. Do I wish you were a little more particular in observing the Holiday? Sure. However, what I ultimately want is for EACH of you to feel your own way through the Holiday. Want I want for EACH of you is to make the Holiday special in whatever way speaks to you. Passover is about Family. Passover is about celebrating the Miracle of our People's Deliverance from servitude to Pharaoh. Feel that, and the rest will fall into place.

Have a crumby holiday!

Israel Committee

ISRAEL MATTERS

Be an Advocate for Israel

We can choose to agree or disagree with a particular policy of the Israeli government, but we can all agree on Israel's right to exist in peace and security. Remember these three crucial points:

- Israel stands for peace. We have proven time and time again that we stand for peace; we must not relinquish that word. What we need is a reliable partner for peace.
- Israel is a democracy. It is the only democracy in that part of the world. We may not always be pleased with the outcome of a particular debate in Israel; but it is the only country in the region where discussions on civil rights, women's rights, and gay rights can take place. It is the only society in the area with a free press. It is the only country in the Middle East where all Arab citizens, including women, have the right to vote.
- Israel has a right to defend itself. Plain and simple. "If the Arabs put down their weapons, there would be no war; if the Israelis put down their weapons, there would be no Israel."

The Israel Committee encourages you to become an advocate for Israel by educating yourself and increasing your Jewish connection. With all of the challenges facing Jews these days, from anti-Israel and anti-Jewish activity to a general sense of apathy; there have never been more opportunities to express one's pride in Judaism. Take a Jewish history course or learn some Hebrew. Study informally with a friend or by visiting relevant websites. Attend Shabbat services. Give your time and creativity to The Israel Committee. If you wish to be notified of our meetings send an email to: MICHAEL GOTTLIEB at gottlieb12330@gmail.com.

We have a strong, vibrant heritage that can provide us with vigor and hope. It is a hope that is thousands of years old. It is a hope that led us from slavery to freedom, from Auschwitz to Jerusalem. It is a hope that will provide us with the strength to renew our commitment to Israel in the year ahead. L'Shanah HaZot B'Yirushalyim - - This year in Jerusalem.

The Israel Committee fosters our congregation's connection to the State of Israel through both advocacy and educational/cultural programming that accurately portray Israel, its history, and its significance to Diaspora Jews. We encourage and welcome the expression of all viewpoints that support Israel and its right to exist in peace and security within the world community.

Parent (s) Names: Craig & Mindi
Markovitz

Grandparents: Jerold (z"l) & Denise Wagenheim and Sandra & Harvey Markovitz

Siblings: Ryan and Ethan Markovitz

Sports: Soccer

Academic Interests: Math & Science

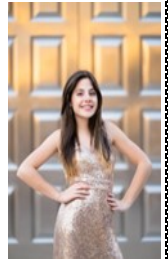

Special Interests: Legos, Drones, Filmmaking, Drawing

Torah Portion: Tzav

My Bar Mitzvah project: Volunteering in this building, a place I consider my second home, is where I chose to carry out my Mitzvah Project. On Sundays, I help Lisa, the Director of Lifelong Learning, wherever needed; Wednesday evenings before class, I often assist Laura, the Youth Engagement coordinator, with planning various activities. I look forward to continuing as a Madrich/Teacher Assistant in Eighth Grade, supporting the teachers in classroom activities and assisting students where necessary. Anyone who knows me knows my love for crazy, wild socks! So with the upcoming Mitzvah Day here at TSS on Sunday, April 16, 2023, during religious school, I will be collecting new socks for men, women, and children experiencing homelessness and donating them to a nonprofit organization called Sock It To Em. Unfortunately, socks are the number one clothing need of those experiencing homelessness. So please feel free to drop off new socks here at TSS in the box in the main lobby. I feel good about being able to help out in a familiar environment with people I know, as well as broadening my horizons and helping out strangers in need.

Sports: Cheerleading

Academic Interests: Reading and creative writing. I also love science

Special Interests: Theater

Torah Portion: Shimini

My Bat Mitzvah project: I chose to raise money for St. Jude's Children's Hospital. St. Jude's provides care for a multitude of children with childhood cancer. Financial hardship can limit care for patients, and St. Jude's provides this much needed care for free. The money I am raising will allow parents to get the proper treatments to help their child. To bring awareness to childhood cancer, I am making bracelets. You donate $5 and I will give you a bracelet thanking you for donating. Every bracelet has a different set of colors, but they all have one color throughout. The color for childhood cancer is gold which is represented in every bracelet. You are not only donating to help childhood cancer, but you are also raising awareness on your own by wearing the bracelet. I am proud that I am able to help the families that may not be able to help themselves. I have raised $180 on Facebook and I am selling the bracelets at my school as well. I hope to help these young lives continue. CLICK HERE TO ORDER

Grandparents: Barbara & Richard Deutsch and Leonard & Sue Patti

Siblings: Judah Deutsch

Sports: Softball and Lacrosse

Academic Interests: Civics, English

Special Interests: Art (drawing, making jewelry, painting)

Torah Portion: Leviticus

My Bat Mitzvah project: This year, I am participating in the Best Buddies Friendship Walk because I believe that everyone deserves to be included. For the 200 million people worldwide with intellectual and developmental disabilities, feeling included in their community is not always a guarantee. That's where Best Buddies comes in! I want to help people with intellectual and developmental disabilities make friends, get jobs, become leaders and live their most independent life. After the walk, I plan to continue to volunteer with Best Buddies locally to support individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities that live in my community. I want to create a more inclusive feeling in the lives of the individuals that I interact with. This is something that is important to me because I want everyone to feel included.

Affinity Groups For our Members

TSS Shabbat Pot-Luck Dinner

The first TSS affinity group began in early 2015 when the Shabbat Pot-Luck Dinner Group of about 10 Temple members met for the first time. By 2020, we grew to about 20-24 of our members meeting and eating together at two member homes each month. We had to take a long break during the Covid shut-down and we began again in November 2022.

A big thank you to our March dinner hosts, Stacey and AJ Ripin and their delightful daughters, and to Millie Seader who hosted for the second time this season. We now have enough people in the affinity group to have a third host home. Our policy is to keep to one table of guests for each home. We begin at 5:00 p.m. and leave by 7:00 p.m. to allow everyone to get to Temple in time for services. Group members volunteer to be a host for a month convenient for them.

We get together the first Friday of each month. Our next Shabbat Dinner will skip April since it is Passover, and we will get together again on May 5, 2023. We have two hosts ready to welcome you to their homes and will have a third host depending on the number of members attending a dinner.

If you would like to join us, please contact the coordinator Anne Gorenstein by email at AnneGoren@gmail.com

From the Board Room

February 2023

It is strange for me to realize that while the secular new year (which begins January 1) is just beginning we are more than half way through the Temple Shaarei Shalom year (which begins July 1). It has been a busy TSS half-year.

Cantor Carrie Barry will be joining TSS in July (pending Congregation approval). She was raised in Coral Springs, and has served congregations in Palm Beach and Broward Counties and is presently Cantor at Congregation Ahavath Chesed in Jacksonville.

At Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, she received the Rabbi Jill Kreitman Prize in Homiletics, the Kreitman Prize in History, the Cantor George Weinfeld Sh'lich Tzibbur Award, the Cantorial Alumni Prize, and the Cantor Norman Summers Award for Excellence in Studies. She was ordained in 2005. She is married and has two sons.

Alpert Jewish Family Services (JFS) has signed a multi-year contract with TSS to rent a portion of our Tendrich Center space. Many thanks to Caryn Feldman whose vision and perseverance enabled this to become a reality. JFS will use the space primarily for meetings. In addition, they will be expanding the Food Pantry that has been at TSS for several years. This will better able them to ease the burden of those who need this help. Holly Bromer, a TSS Board Member and a coordinator of the Food Insecurity Committee at JFS will help to effectuate a strong outreach to those in need.

There will be separate entrances and opportunities for TSS members to attend JFS programming. Their activities will not interfere with TSS services, programs, or activities.

The Board approved a new policy for building closure. The entire TSS building will be closed for Jewish holidays (as before) and for Federal holidays.

Our Affinity Groups are doing well (see page 9) It is gratifying to see our members meeting in different venues as they pursue their individual interests. If there is no existing group that meets your needs/wishes, please contact Vice President John Sudenfield who can help you reach out to others and start a new group.

Looking forward, April brings "showers" and Passover. Over 120 people will be joining us for our annual 2nd night Seder. May brings our Annual Meeting (Tues, May 16 at 7pm). There is an unusually large number of Board positions to be filled. The Nominating Committee is interviewing and the slate will be mailed to you by end of April. Please be sure to submit your ballot for Cantor approval and Board Vote. Your vote is important.

May you and your loved ones be blessed with a Chag Pesach Sameach ... a Happy Passover.

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood wants to extend a special thank you to Barbara Weiss for the amazing Hamantaschen that she baked for the Purim boxes. Kudos to Myra Weingard and her committee for coordinating and distributing the boxes.

We are looking forward to Passover, when we all sit down with our families, talking and remembering our Seders when we were children. All the cousins laughed and giggled, while our Zadie said the prayers. Of course, Zadie said shah schtil, but we were little and didn't listen. As you have your Seders, think about when you were young and silly, it will make you smile. Good memories last forever. Hopefully next year we will have a Women's Seder.

The April luncheon, presented by TRUSTBRIDGE will deal with important information your adult children need to know See Page 13 for details.

May 16th, Tuesday afternoon, we will be going to the Delray Playhouse to see musical memories of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. Cost $35.00 per person. See Page 16 for details.

SAVE the DATE On May 18th Sisterhood meeting/luncheon will be featuring Gloria Stein, a multi-talented entertainer.

Wishing all our members and their families a Happy Passover.

Shalom,

Ellen Hulkower and Roberta Alter

STARY

Tikkun Olam, repairing the world, is one of our main goals in STARY. Through acts of kindness and community service, we are giving back and helping others in our Temple community and beyond. In March, our STARY teens made Mishloach Manot bags for The Meridian at Lantana. In addition, our monthly lunches were made for the Boynton Beach Soup Kitchen.

Our Dunk the Rabbi Dunk was a huge success at the JCC for the One Purim Carnival. Rabbi Fratello not only braved the dunk tank waters, he matched all donations from the Carnival. We raised $316 dollars for Camp Jenny. Thank you to Rabbi Fratello and all the teens who came out in the hot sun to volunteer.

The K-6th grade Sunday Funday Fundraiser for the STARY Lounge was awesome! From slime to flag football, everyone had a blast with our teens overseeing the event.

STARY and STARY JR managed to escape the Magic School and Asylum in under an hour at our Room Raiders event. Teamwork makes the Dream Work!

The Pizza Shuk is Back! Each Wednesday, from 5:15-6:30pm, STARY will be selling pizza, drinks, candy and chips in the Social Hall. Forms for preordering were sent home with the Wednesday students.

Social Outreach, Action and Reform Committee

(S.O.A.R.)

This April, Jews worldwide will celebrate Passover. We will gather with family and friends to read from a book called the haggadah, meaning “telling,” which contains the order of prayers, rituals, readings, and songs for the Passover seder. The word seder means “order.” The ancient rabbis composed a list of steps that we follow to this day to tell the story of our ancestors’ Exodus from Egypt. The story, rituals and customs of the seder link us to previous generations and to the generations to come. The Passover holiday is a celebration of freedom and family; however, we would be remiss if we did not recognize that while the Jewish people may be free, not everyone has cause for celebration. Many people, even in a free society such as ours, are bound by hardships and challenges that make them virtual slaves to their circumstances.

Passover is a holiday rich in social justice themes. It is impossible to re-tell the Jewish story of redemption and not feel compelled to eradicate injustice in the world today. Among the primary social justice themes found in the Exodus story and in the Passover observance are hunger, homelessness, oppression, and redemption. Below, please find ways to incorporate social action themes into your Passover observance:

Donate Your Chametz.

The pre-Passover ritual of cleaning our homes of chametz, or leavening, requires the thorough cleaning of the entire house in a search for leavened products, down to the smallest crumb. The process reminds us of those who search daily for a nutritional meal to sustain themselves and their families. This Passover, donate your chametz to food pantries or soup kitchens. Temple Shaarei Shalom will be holding a Passover food drive and will be accepting donations in the front lobby through April 9. In addition, consider making contributions to (or volunteering at) The Soup Kitchen of Boynton Beach and/or the Community Caring Center's food pantry. These organizations are right in our backyard, where 1 in 6 people don't know where their next meal is coming from.

Invite a stranger into your home.

Passover serves as a painful reminder that the Jewish people were strangers in the land of Egypt and spent 40 long years of wandering in the wilderness without a home. Throughout the Torah, we are reminded of this fact; for example, in Exodus 23:9, we read, “You shall not oppress a stranger, since you yourselves know the feelings of a stranger, for you also were strangers in the land of Egypt.” In Leviticus 19:33 we find, “When a stranger resides with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.” The list goes on and on. Passover serves as a reminder that it is we who make people strange to us and estranged from us. And it is we who have the power to make strangers friends. As such, invite strangers to your home...or maybe just an elderly neighbor or divorced friend. No one should be alone and made to feel as a stranger during the holiday.

Supplement your Seder with poetry or alternative readings questioning modern-day slavery.

Human trafficking is the illegal trade of people for exploitation or commercial gain. Over twenty million people, including five million children, are victims of human trafficking each year. In fact, Florida ranks #3 out of all states in the Country for incidents of Human Trafficking; and Palm Beach County ranks #3 out of all counties in the State for suspected cases of Human Trafficking. This Passover, consider supplementing your seder with readings to remember that slavery didn't end in Egypt as many people around the world are victims of modern day slavery and human trafficking. The Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism (RAC) offers many readings to choose from, including a special haggadah with a unique perspective on modern-day slavery. Furthermore, many Jews update the seder by supplementing the recitation of the biblical plagues with the mention of contemporary “plagues” like human-trafficking. As you remove a drop of wine from your cup for each plague, be reminded you can't drink a “full cup” of joy when other people suffer.

Update Your Seder Plate.

The objects on the seder plate help us remember the Passover story. Alongside the traditional items on the seder plate, consider some of modern additions like an orange or fair-trade chocolate. The addition of an orange to the seder plate is a way of acknowledging the role of people who feel marginalized within the Jewish community, for instance, LGBTQ Jews. The fair trade movement promotes economic partnerships based on equality, justice and sustainable environmental practices. By including fair-trade chocolate or cocoa beans on the seder plate, we are reminded that although we escaped from slavery in Egypt, forced labor is still very much an issue today. I've read about many other items used to infuse social justice themes into the holiday meal. What other symbols would you add and why?

Contact me at Socialaction@tempeshaareishalom.com. I would love to hear about how you and your family addressed injustice in the world during your Passover seder.

May your Passover holiday be filled with love, light and peace!

With Kindness –
Holly Bromer

2023 Passover Food Drive

Please help to keep the Food Pantry at TSS stocked!

Temple Shaarei Shalom has partnered with the Alpert Jewish Family Service (JFS) organization to maintain a food pantry in our building. The food pantry supports current JFS clients as well as those individuals and families in the local community that are in need. Food, hygiene products and household cleaning supplies are distributed monthly.

This Passover, do a mitzvah by not only getting rid of chametz, but by donating kosher, nonperishable foods.

The Pantry really needs*:

- Tuna and/or salmon
- Canned vegetables
- Peanut butter & jelly
- Canned/boxed soups

*No past-due/expired items accepted. Please look for a Kosher symbol

Pop-top preferred

Donations accepted in the front lobby from 3/17 through 4/9.
