

Sisterhood of Presents...

Jeanne Lynn Gray

Thursday

October 19

11:30am

Jeanne grew up in the South Florida area and although she had a love of music and theatre from an early age it wasn't until high school that the acting bug really hit her. It was there, and at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in NY, that Jeanne learned to harness and shape the talent and creativity that she uses to this day.

Jeanne netted both the Carbonell and Curtain Up Awards for Best Actress in a Musical for her portrayal of "Queen" in Cy Coleman's musical "The Life" and another Carbonell nomination, for "The Last Session."

Since the debut of her cabaret show "Shades of Gray" Jeanne has made a name for herself on stages throughout the country. With her lively mix of storytelling and songs... Her unique shows have garnered her both critical and personal success.

Always ready to reinvent oneself, and never one to turn down a project, Jeanne also sings with local bands, is a Songwriter, Teacher, Writer, Producer and Director. She is also the Head Chaos Coordinator in her household of Two Parents, Five Kids and Two Dogs. Through all of this she currently has several shows in various stages of production and is excited for the upcoming seasons.
